

Request for Hearing, for Default Judgment

Instructions: A plaintiff must request a hearing prior to the entry of a default judgment, unless the plaintiff's claim is based on a written document that was signed by the defendant, and a copy of the document has been filed with the Court and served on the defendant together with plaintiff's sworn statement that the copy of the document is true and accurate and the claim is owed, and all payments, offsets, or credits due to the defendant have been accounted.

The plaintiff must appear at the hearing and provide evidence of damages. The judge will render judgment for the plaintiff in the amount proven. If the plaintiff is unable to prove damages, the judge will render judgment in favor of the defendant.

The plaintiff requesting a default judgment must provide a certificate of last known mailing address of the defendant at or before the judgment is signed. Rule 503.1
