

Instructions: Any party in a Small Claims or Debt Claim Case is entitled to a trial by jury. A written demand for a jury must be filed no later than 14 days before the date the case is set for trial, together with payment of the jury fee in the amount of $22.00. If a party withdraws the demand for a jury trial, the case will remain on the jury docket unless all other parties agree to try the case without a jury. There is no refund of the jury fee. The judge must not charge the jury in Justice Court. Rule 504.1
