

Instructions: Any party in an Eviction Case may request a jury trial by filing a written demand at least 3 days before the trial date together with payment of the jury fee in the amount of $22.00. A jury will be impaneled and sworn as in other cases and after hearing the evidence, the jury will return a verdict either in favor of the plaintiff or in favor of the defendant. If a party withdraws the demand for a jury trial, the case will remain on the jury docket unless all other parties agree to try the case without a jury. There is no refund of the jury fee. Rule 510.7
